Accessorio in gres smaltato caratterizzato da una forma sferica essenziale, sollevata da una piccola base appena accennata. La superficie opaca presenta una texture materica ottenuta tramite l'utilizzo di smalti di origine naturale che generano sfumature chiare e depositi irregolari evocando l'effetto naturale dell'erosione minerale. L 25 × H 31 × W 25 cm L 9 7/8" × H 12 1/4" × W 9 7/8"

English

Arina Antonova is a contemporary artist living and working between Spain and Switzerland. Her practice focuses on ceramic sculpture and installation, exploring the relationship between body, memory and material through a deeply tactile and sculptural language. Her works investigate themes of female identity, everyday rituals and craft traditions, transforming clay into a physical and emotional presence that creates an intimate dialogue between object, space and perception.
